

Rüdiger Feil – winner of the Preliminary Round 2

The 275 points from the reigning European Championship Rüdiger Feil were more than enough to win today's preliminary round 2. Andreas Kals from Austria reached 256 points, followed by Laurent Lombard from France with 255 points.

The bad weather including rain from the days before is gone – except the strong wind, which is the main influential component during performance. When it comes true, what the forecasting predict, we will get back the summer in the next days with higher temperatures and lower wind from the nord-east-side.

But regardless of the weather – have always good flights!

*Kaj-Henning Nielsen:
Happy Birthday to you!*

Today there is Kaj-Henning Nielsen's birthday. Since two years he is retired from his job as helicopter pilot in the Denmark military. Now he has more time to enjoy himself.

We all congratulate him and wish him and his wife Benthe all the best!

Today evening the preliminary round 1 with the first group of teams was realised successful. We could see in over 120 laps hot slicks and a lot of »bumps«, but nobody was hurt. Tomorrow at 20:00 is the next race with further groups. The best teams from both preliminary rounds will celebrated the spectacular final round at friday afternoon.
